

The FCC should not have the right to allow telemarketers to continuously harras NJ residents because the telemarketers feel the law is unjust. New Jersey residents have a right to be able to stop the influx of these types of calls into our homes.